

Meet the people behind the names

Your family history interview record

Who, when and where

Storyteller, interviewer, date and recording location.

Permission and sharing

May I record? Who may hear it? Any topics to skip?

A story to begin with

Who is the oldest relative you remember? What were they like?

Names, places and approximate dates

Note nicknames and spellings. Mark uncertain details.

Questions to follow up

What happened next? Who was there? How do you place the date?

Check later and save

Records to consult, photo labels, filename and backup location.

Let the storyteller pause or stop. Confirm the audience before sharing.
